FOUND DEAD.

Chas. M. Lacy, a Saloon Man, Died Very Suddenly.

Discovered Dead in His Room Yesterday Morning at Ten O'Clock.

Chas. M. Lacy, a member of the saloon firm of Lacy & Lacy, was found dead in his room over his saloon on Seventh street at ten o'clock yesterday morning.

He was hanging partly out of the bed and had been vomiting.
Evidently he had ruptured a blood vessel while vomiting and died before he could call his brother, who was in the saloon below. Blood had gushed out of his mouth and some. He was quite dead when found, and had been dead for some time.

Deceased was an unmarried man about 41 years of age. He was addicted to heavy drinking and had been on a spree for several days.
He went to bed the night before in bad shape and nothing much was thought of it the next morning when he did not get up. The boy who made his fire, saw nothing wrong,
though he appeared to be asleep.
He did not go to him and it is possible he may have been dead
at that time.

Lacy was the younger of the Lacy brothers, who have been in business here for 25 years. He was born in this county and first came to town to clerk in the grocery store of his brother-in-law, M. W. Grissam, who died about ten years ago.
The coroner's jury returned the following verdict:

"We, the jury, find that Chas. M.
Lacy came to his death from hemorrhage of the stomach caused from excessive drinking."

FLOODED WITH WATER.

The Royal Dry Goods Store Damaged By a Bursted Pipe.

The Royal Dry Goods Company
was flooded during Wednesday night by the breaking of a water pipe in the hallway of the Summers building, on the corner of Main and Court streets. It is supposed to have burst from freezing. The water poured through the ceiling above the Royal's store room for some time before the water could be cut off. Mr. Macauley, manager of the store, could not accurately estimate the damage to his stock yesterday, but he says it will be anywhere from $300 to $400. The loss was not of a nature to be covered by insurance and the damages will fall upon the Royal Company.

WILL CLOSE TO NIGHT.

Baptizing at the Baptist Church
This Evening.

Dr. Hale's meeting at the Baptist church will close this evening.
His sermons this afternoon and tonight will complete the series and after the services the converts, about 12 or 15 in number, will be baptized. Dr. Hale has sustained his reputation for ability and earnestness as a preacher, by his sermons here and the meeting has been a successful one, though conducted under many disadvantages.
Dr. Nash has been able to assist during the last few days.

Mr. Allen Injured.

Mr. G. A. Allen, of Pembroke, was quite badly hurt by being trampled by an unruly horse last Saturday. One hip was fractured and he sustained other serious injuries that will lay him up for some time.

QUIET AT MANILA.

Otis Following Up His Victory
Over Aguinaldo.

The Killed Number 54 and the Wounded 190 On Our Side—
Hopkinsville Boys in It.

Manila, Feb. 8. 5:15 p. m.—The situation to-day is practically unchanged. The American line has not been appreciably extended and the troops are taking a much-needed rest. Reconnaissances show that the Filipinos are in force in the villages of Pasig and Parangue, probably 7,000 men at the latter place, within strong fortifications.
All is quiet along the line when this dispatch is filed.

Aguinaldo's power is slipping from him, and he has applied to Maj. Gen. Otis for a truce. His communication has not been answered. Gen. Otis cables that the native army is disintegrating and that Aguinaldo's influence around Manila has been destroyed. The American lines have been pushed still further out, sweeping up straggling native bands, but encountered no serious resistance
since the light reported yesterday.
The insurgents are attempting to concentrate at Parangue, where they have about 7,000 men. No instructions have been sent to Gen.
Otis. His movements will be left entirely to his own discretion.

Reports of casualties to the American troops, up to Wednesday morning, bring the total to 54 killed, 3 missing and probably dead and 190 wounded. The killed only includes those killed on the field and not those who may have since died of their wounds.

GEN. OTIS' REPORT.

Details the Manila Situation to the War Department.

Washington, Feb. 9.—The war department received the following dispatch from Gen. Otis:

"Manila, Feb. 7.—Adjutant General, Washington: The insurgent army concentrated around Manila from Luzon provinces, numbering over 20,000, possessing several quick-firing and Krupp field guns.
Good portion of the army armed with Mausers, latest pattern. Two Krupp and great many rifles captured. Insurgents fired great quantity of ammunition. Quite a number of Spanish soldiers in insurgent service, who constructed strong intrenchments near our lines, mostly in bamboo thickets. These our men charged, killing or capturing many of the enemy.

"Our casualties probably aggregated 220." Full reports today.
Casualties of insurgents very heavy.
Have buried some 500 of their dead and hold 500 prisoners. Their loss, killed, wounded and prisoners,
probably 4,000.

"Took waterworks pumping station yesterday, six miles out. Considerable skirmish with enemy, which made no stand. Pump damaged, will be working in a week.
Have number of condensers set up in city, which furnish good water.
Troops in excellent spirits. Quiet prevails. Otis."

To Attack Iloilo.

Manila, Feb. 9.—The First Tennessee has been sent on the transport St. Paul to reinforce Gen. Miller at Iloilo. Gen. Miller will attempt to take the city. Gen. Miller now has a force of 2,322 men as follows: Eighteenth infantry, 1,147;
Battery of Sixth artillery, estimated, 180; Fifty-third Iowa, 995. At last accounts the insurgents at Iloilo number about 1,500 men armed with rifles, but it is believed that their actual force, including those without rifles, is double that figure.

Are You Ready.

Now is the time to mate up your breeding yards and are you prepared with strong, vigorous cocks or cockerels, not prize winners every time but birds that when properly mated will produce prize winners. It is not the prize birds that produce prize birds every time, they will do if they are properly mated. Brother, if you are not far enough advanced to know how to mate your birds for the best results, it will pay you to pay a few dollars to a good judge or old breeder who will and can do it right, to do it for you, as there is where the money is made. If you need new blood now is the time to buy, as the breeder that delays until the last moment is the one that never does anything and is always at the rear of the column saying there is nothing in the fancy poultry business. But the man that always takes time by the forelock is the man that finds money in the fancy poultry business. The egg trade should commence here in the South next month. Have you got your ad placed? If you have not don't let February pass without your ad. In print—H. C. Austin, Johnson City, Tenn.

Senator Deboe's Grammar.

Owensboro Messenger: A gentleman from here wrote to one of the United States Senators from this State asking him to intercede with the Secretary of War to get his son out of the army. The answer came, written on a typewriter and dictated by the Senator, saying:

"Your letter received. Have wrote the Secretary of War."

Henry Clay remains turned a backward somersault; Ottendene's turned its face to the bottom of the coffin, while those of Beck again asked forgiveness of St. Peter for having been a United States Senator from Kentucky. The Senator's name was not Lindsay.

—FRIDAY, FEB. 10, 1899—

Quay's trial has again been postponed, this time Feb. 27.

W. T. Knott, a brother of Ex-Gov. J. Proctor Knott, is dead, aged 76.

The 6000 shot machines in Chicago will hereafter pay a $10 license.

Congressman Towney, has offered a resolution to make Feb. 15, the anniversary of the blowing up of the Maine, a national holiday.

The Owensboro Messenger confesses that there has been a murder, or an attempt at murder, in Daviess county every week this year.

The Glasgow papers announce that Senator Goebel will speak there March 6, the same day his friends here say he has promised to speak in Hopkinsville.

Secretary Long has broken all records for brevity in official communications. A cablegram to Admiral Dewey Tuesday consisted of one word, but that word was enough to cover the subject in hand. It was the word "congratulations."

Willie Klair, formerly a page in the House, and a well-known young man, has been nominated for Representative by the Democrats of Fayette county. As he is a strong friend of Senator Goebel's, there may be some political significance in his victory.

Israel Acott was married in Michigan twenty years ago. The couple were separated by the wife's parents. Acott located in Peoria and last Thursday his wife found him, and they were re-married with their nineteen-year-old daughter as a witness.

During the fight at Manila Sunday 700 Igorotes, naked savages, were conspicuous for their bravery, facing artillery fire and fighting only with bows and arrows. The American Indians could give these savages some pointers about the treatment Uncle Sam gives his wards who refuse to become civilized.

Harry A. Rantz, of Elmira, N. Y., was married by telephone to Miss Nellie G. Maxwell, at Williamsport, Pa. Legal forms were observed at both ends of the line and able lawyers gave opinions that such a ceremony would be as binding as any. Kissing the bride of course had to be postponed until the bride and groom were at closer range.

The president has caused to be promulgated the sentence in the case of Gen. Chas. B. Eagan. The court-martial sentence was dismissed from the army, and the president has commuted this to "suspension from duty, which covers the remainder of time prior to Gen. Eagan's retirement in January, 1905. Gen. Eagan will be reinstated in time to retire with his regular rank and pay. The sentence of suspension does not deprive Eagan of any pay, but he loses his allowances, which included commutation of rations and fuel.

Mr. Watterson himself has once more defined the "position" of the Courier-Journal, concluding a long editorial with the following concerning the gubernatorial contest, which, it will be observed, contains a promise to support the nominee:

"The pretense that the Courier-Journal has preference among the Democratic aspirants for Governor of Kentucky is infatuated with none of them. It is a figure of the malice of unprincipled enemies. If anybody wants to know the truth, we can assure him that the Courier-Journal is infatuated with none of them. All free-silver coins look alike to the Courier-Journal. But, as it has to choose between a free-silver Democrat and a high-tariff Republican, it will vote for the Democrat who may be nominated. In the interim its columns are equally open to Mr. Hardin, to Mr. Goebel and to Mr. Stinson. Each shall have fair play. If any one of them fails, or thinks he finds the least reason to complain, he has only to make his grievance known to the Courier-Journal."

PON PARAGRAPHS

Penned for the Kentuckian by Honey Bee.

Pon, Ky., Feb. 7.—The usual amount of rabbit hunting has been indulged in since the heavy fall of snow.

Mrs. Sam'l Cavanah, who had been confined to her bed with consumption for several months, died last week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. King visited Hopkinsville a few days ago.

Mr. L. B. King sold several hog-heads of tobacco on the Hopkinsville market last week, realizing satisfactory prices.

Miss Myna Wood opened a subscription school at Dogwood Chapel yesterday.

Messrs. Jas. and Harvey Cavanaugh and sister have moved into their new house near Kelly.

The cold weather has stopped the work of prizing tobacco.

HONEY BEE.

HAEGERTY-McGINNIS.

Early Morning Marriage—Couple at Once Leave for Tennessee.

Mr. Thos. J. Haegerty, of Knoxville, Tenn., formerly of this city, and Miss Sabra McGinnis were married at the bride's home in this city at 5:30 o'clock a. m., Wednesday. Father B. J. Wright, of Russellville, performed the ceremony. The couple left on the 6:15 train for their future home in Knoxville.

Another Hero Hobson.

Henry Williams, of Bowling Green, writes to the Democrat from Matanzas, Cuba:

"The Kentuckians are better pleased with the Cuban natives than they expected. They find them poverty-stricken and in need, but enthusiastic and ambitious with a love and admiration for America that is exemplified on all occasions. If all Cuban natives class up to those of this city I see no reason why they are not capable of self-government.

The Third drew its first blood on Cuban soil yesterday. Private Hobson of Company B, killed a shark measuring nine feet, and is now dubbed by his comrades "Hero Hobson." St. John B. LaRue has been appointed Quartermaster of the Third battalion and Corporal Otto Vaughan Sergeant Major."

Death of Dr. Burchard.

Dr. M. J. L. Burchard, a prominent homeopathic physician, of Princeton, aged 80 years, died Sunday night.

Bowling Alley License.

Johnson & Muir were yesterday granted a license to operate a Bowling Alley—two ball ways—on south Main.

John D. Clews, aged one-hundred and two years, and Mrs. Sarah Jennings, aged one-hundred, were married in Franklin, Pa., last week. The bridegroom is a wealthy oil producer and a veteran of the Civil and Mexican wars, while the bride is a cousin of Abraham Lincoln. Notwithstanding the advanced age of Mr. and Mrs. Clews they are as lively as people of forty.

Eagan will continue to draw his pay as Commissary General while under suspension. His alleged punishment turns out to be a farce, and he will doubtless soon be pardoned by the President.

BALDHEADED CLUB.

Col. Woodriddle, Who Expects To Be President, Speaks.

Objects to Sam Jones' Sneering Remarks About Poor Men Like Col. Bryan and Others.

Col. Woodriddle, who was at work on his scrap-book, for I am loaded to the muzzle with a speech and don't want to be battered up by having to preside again this time.

The members were somewhat slow in coming in, and there were still a number of vacant seats when the President rapped for order.

Among the late arrivals was Col. Green Champlin, who had been laid up with grip for several weeks, and Col. Dave Wiley, who came in on the night train from Dawson.

Col. Tom Williams was absent, as he had left town on reading that the Hobson craze was still raging to such an extent that some women down in Texas had actually sunk a smack at the entrance to Gen. Shafter's alimentary canal. There was no telling when the kissing epidemic might reach Hopkinsville, as they say it goes with the grip, and he sent word that he would light a rag and wait till the clouds rolled by.

Col. Buck Leavell was unusually cheerful by reason of the endorsement Sam Jones gave his Extra Dry List. The Colonel said he was anxious to get a chance, to exhibit the workings of his whipping post while Sam was in town, but failed to find a victim. He made a nice little speech and said Sam called on him and he was obliged to apologize for not having somebody on hand to whip, just to show Sam his copyrighted method of making criminals quit their meannesses.

Col. Bob Woodriddle, as soon as he could get the floor, said he wanted to ask what Sam Jones meant by sneering at poor but honest men. He had heard him say Bryan was unfit to be President because he paid only $6.35 taxes. If Mr. Jones had a mouth-piece present he would like to know how rich a man had to be to be President. Mr. Jones evidently had his wires crossed. It is Senators and not Presidents who have to put up the stuff as a rule to get there. Few of our Presidents have been rich men. Grant, Garfield, Harrison and Cleveland were all men of modest fortunes. Cleveland, it is true, came out rich, but he went in poor. And McKinley was worse than any of them, for he not only had nothing, but owed $118,000 to those who paid his debts for him a year or two before. "Growing eloquent as he proceeded, Col. Woodriddle declared: "Who did Sam vote for anyway? He says he didn't vote for Bryan because he was a poor man. Then who did he vote for, as Bryan was the only man on the track who paid any taxes at all. McKinley was in the hands of an assignee, and Palmer is even now begging for a pension of $50.00 a month to keep him from suffering in his old age. If he was hunting rich men to vote for, he surely didn't find them in that assortment."

Col. Lem McKee said Bro. Jones was not always consistent. One night he eulogized Abe Lincoln for being a rail-splitter, and the next night sneered at Bryan for being poor but honest.

At this point President Bassett cut off the discussion by ruling it out of order, as he was afraid some of the colonels might say something if they continued to talk.

After appointing a committee to investigate a report that the groundhogs had spoiled the weather, the club adjourned until another night.

Editor Charles C. Moore, of the Bluegrass Blade, of Lexington, was this week sentenced to two years in the penitentiary by the Federal Court at Cincinnati, on the charge of sending obscene matter through the mails. J. E. Hughes, Moore's publisher, was fined $25.

AM glad President Bassett's hand to-night, said Vice-President Woodriddle, to Col. Buck Leavell, who was at work on his scrap-book, for I am loaded to the muzzle with a speech and don't want to be battered up by having to preside again this time.

Conductor's Story

A Friend Put Him on the Track to Good Health

Had Been Laid Up for Two Months with Dizzy Spells.

"I have had a stomach trouble for the past three years and last winter I was so that I could not work for over two months. I would have dizzy spells when I could not get out of bed, and when I was lying down it seemed as though there was a hard lump in my stomach. The medicines given me afforded relief only for a time. A friend advised me to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, which I did, and after taking six bottles I am glad to say I never felt better in my life. I do not have any dizzy spells and do not feel the lump in my stomach." A. JACOBSON, Passenger Conductor, P. C. C. and St. Louis Ry., 420 19th St., Louisville, Kentucky.

OBITUARY.

Little Raymond, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marshal Coleman died, Feb. 1, aged eleven months. He had been sick for quite a while, when he took the grippe. All that loving hands could do, proved of no avail. It makes my heart ache when I see the almost heart-broken parents, grieving so sorely for their baby. This is the second time they have been left childless. Dear Friends, take heart saying:

"Baby has gone to the golden weather."

Over the shining mountains brow, Through the dark mist we'll walk together.

We have only each other now. Put your hand in mine and pray, Pray that soon the morn will break,

That God will hear us and show us the way.

Safe into Heaven for our babies sake." A FRIEND.

LAST PROP GONE.

Bryan's Taxes In 1895 Were Four Times $8.

Sam Jones' Plea That He Meant That Year Calls For Another Retraction.

It will be remembered that Rev. Sam Jones, in correcting his perversion of the facts in regard to Col. Bryan's taxes, stated when confronted with the figures back to 1896 that his statement that Bryan paid only $8.35 was and was until he was President on account of his poverty, applied to 1895.

In order to get further information we wrote to the Sheriff of Lancaster county, Neb., asking for a statement of both city and county taxes for that year.

The answer has been received and contains the following official report:

"Bryan's city tax for 1895 was $12.30, for county $16.86, making $29.16. If you desire I can furnish schedule of property assessed."

JOHN J. THOMPEN, Sheriff.

According to this Mr. Jones' statement could not have applied to 1895 and Sam has been left with very little ground to stand upon in discussing at least one of the commandments.

Married at the residence of her brother, Dr. W. G. Wheeler, Wednesday, Feb. 8th Judge H. C. Turley and Mrs. Kate M. Morris. Judge and Mrs. Turley left Wednesday for their home in Natchez, Miss.

That Cough Hangs On

You have used all sorts of cough remedies but it does not yield; it is too deep seated. It may wear itself out in time, but it is more liable to produce la grippe, pneumonia or a serious throat affection. You need something that will give you strength and build up the body.

SCOTT'S EMULSION

Will do this when everything else fails. There is no doubt about it. It nourishes, strengthens, builds up and makes the body strong and healthy, not only to throw off this hard cough, but to fortify the system against further attacks. If you are run down or emaciated you should certainly take this nourishing food medicine.

CAPT. W. J. STONE

Formally Announces For the Governorship.

His address to the Democrats of Kentucky Outlining His Views on Public Affairs.

Ex-Congressman W. J. Stone, of Kuttawa, issues an address to the Democrats of Kentucky, formally announcing himself a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor, and declaring the platform on which he stands. Capt. Stone has made no appointments for speech-makings, but may appear upon the stump in a week or two. His address to the Democrats is as follows:

"Kuttawa, Feb. 7. To the Democrats of Kentucky: I desire to be your nominee for governor of our State. I am a Democrat in the full est sense of that term. I am a Democrat because I believe the principles of the Democratic party applied to the management of government, national, State and local, will bring more of the blessings intended by the framers of the constitution to the people than any other set of principles ever formulated by men.

"I am in favor of the platform adopted at Chicago, with a clause opposing expansion and imperialism, as a platform for 1900, and the renomination of Hon. W. J. Bryan for the presidency.

"I believe in the free and unlimited coinage of silver at 16 to 1, without the consent of any of our foreign power, and so voted and spoke in congress long before it became a leading issue of politics.

"I believe in the strictest economy in the conduct of the affairs of government in order that taxation may be kept at the lowest possible point.

"I believe corporate institutions should be governed by and subject to such laws as may be necessary to insure that justice to all concerned shall prevail between corporations and the people.

"I am opposed to trusts and combines, because they destroy competition in trade and are detrimental to the interest of the masses of the people.

"I am in favor of fostering and strengthening the school system of our state to the end that such an education as will fit them for the business of life may be in reach of all the children in the state.

"I am in favor of so managing the convict labor of the state as to make it as near self-sustaining as possible, and of employing the convicts at such work as will compete least with free labor.

"My idea of a law to remedy the evils practiced under the old election law differ from the present law, but the law was enacted by a Democratic legislature as a Democratic measure and has been declared constitutional by the courts, and as far as tested in operation has proven satisfactory. Should it prove to be bad in any respect I am sure every Democrat would favor remedying the defect. Until defects appear I can see no more necessity for making it an issue in the primary campaign than for making any other law now in the statute books an issue.

"To be made governor of Kentucky is the highest honor that can be conferred on one of her citizens by the people, and I should appreciate the honor with a degree of gratitude that words cannot express. I am a farmer by occupation and have been all my life. I have had experience in public life, both as a member of the Kentucky legislature and as a member of congress from the First congressional district of Kentucky. I was for three years in active service of a Confederate soldier, and was one year in hospital from wounds received in battle. Should you honor me with the nomination I will do all in my power to carry your banner to victory with an old-time Democratic majority. Should you in your wisdom prefer to nominate some one else, there will be no complaints from me or my friends, but we will stand ready to battle in the hottest of the fight for the success of your ticket. The Democratic party owes me nothing; I owe the party true allegiance, and every effort I can put

Of Paramount Importance

□To all Farmers in purchasing implements is the item of repairs. First get the best machine, but do not fail to take into consideration the question of whether your dealer can be depended upon to furnish the repairs for this machine, not only for the year that you buy but for the next year and the next. Don't make the mistake of buying from a firm that is here to-day and gone to-morrow, leaving you the bag to hold. You don't get his guarantee made good either, to say nothing of the loss of valuable time of team and hands at the most critical stage in your farming operations. This applies to everything in the implement line, Wagons, Mowers, Binders, Cultivators, Buggies, Threshers, Ranges and everything. Don't make a mistake. We've got the best machines—we have got the repairs for them and you can count positively of finding them here always. Dealers come and dealers go but we go on forever. These are our leaders for 99: Mogul Wagons, Deering Ball Binders, Frick Engines and Threshers, Jno. Deere Cornplanters and Cultivators, Majestic Ranges, &c.

These are the best, for we have our choice of all lines on the market AND REMEMBER you can always find repairs for them right here in our store.
